Minister of Music and Worship

"I am weary, but hopeful!"

I've heard this sentiment from countless friends and family this fall. As I hear messages from doctors and health professionals that we are entering into a new chapter of the global pandemic, one in which there is more life and less death, the line from a beloved Christmas hymn comes to mind:

*A thrill of hope— the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn!*

This Advent gives us the opportunity to experience a thrill of hope, because our God's promises are sure and the Christ Child dwells among us. We will journey together through Advent looking, listening, and waiting for signs that the dawn is breaking. We will worship, learn, and serve as those called to hope in God!

On Sunday, Dec. 5, our Youth Handbells and Chancel Bells will lead us in worship as we hear beloved carols and sing Advent hymns. Our Children's Choirs, and Children's Bells and Chimes will lead us on Sunday, Dec. 12. Parents of these children will join them in a "Choir of Families" as they sing one choral anthem together.

As we are sent out from Worship on Sunday, Dec. 12, you'll be handed an ornament and treat to mark and remember this Advent and Christmas in 2021.

Sunday, Dec. 19 will be the Festival of Lessons and Carols offered by the Chancel Choir and Youth Choir, along with a string orchestra. Scripture lessons will be read by ministers and members of the congregation, the choirs and instrumentalists will sing songs of Advent and Christmas, and all will be invited to sing familiar and beloved carols.

For a fuller description of Advent opportunities, see pages 5 and 6.

Folding Our Tent

By BOB SETZER JR.

Sunday, Nov. 14, was a momentous day at Knollwood.

On that day we received Communion, made our Giving and Service Commitments, heard our children's choirs sing, recognized our veterans, received new members, and much more.

But for me, one of the most memorable and saddest events of the day was when we folded our tent.

I'm speaking, of course, of the large white tent erected just outside the sanctuary each Sunday for the last several months. That tent provided both refuge and refreshment. It was the sacred place after worship where we could take off our masks and see each other face-to-face. It was the shelter where we could get a cup of lemonade and a cookie or some pretzels. The tent was where the Communion after the service began.

But now, with colder weather settling in, meeting outside is no longer practical. So for a spell, we'll have to settle for the customary handshake or hug after worship before walking briskly to our vehicles while shivering against the cold. No longer does a loving, lingering, maskless community beckon after worship, at least not until we can safely resume such fellowship indoors.

I'm going to miss our tent. It created a sacred, special space where we could safely weather the pandemic's storm in one another's company.

During her 40-year sojourn in the wilderness, Israel worshipped in a tent. The Bible calls it "the Tabernacle," which makes it sound big and important, which, of course, it was. But for all the high-flown religious language, the Tabernacle was basically a tent.

And centuries later, Israel's prophets and seers wistfully recalled the time when Israel worshipped in a tent. For that was the period of the nation's greatest dependency upon God and hence, the period of Israel's greatest faithfulness to God. As the prophet Jeremiah writes, "Thus says the Lord: I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness" (Jeremiah 2:2).

What did Israel learn during her wilderness sojourn while worshipping in a tent? That God can be trusted. That God will provide. That no matter how great the obstacles and challenges, God finds a way.

And what have we learned as a congregation during this pandemic, as our trusty tent beckoned us to face-to-face community each Sunday after worship? That God can be trusted. That God will provide. That no matter how great the obstacles and challenges, God and God's people find a way.

So goodbye, Faithful Tent. We will miss you. But thanks for teaching us that this community and mission we hold in trust are not bound to any building or ritual. No, by God's grace, we can adapt and change and grow no matter how daunting our circumstances.

For even in the depths of a wilderness wrought by a pandemic and maybe especially there, "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; God's mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning."

"Great is God's Faithfulness!" (Lam. 3:22-23).

Blessings,

Bob

Giving Commitments Update For 2022

Many thanks to the many Knollwood members and friends who made Giving and Service Commitments on Commitment Sunday, Nov. 14.

Commitment Sunday brought in 126 giving commitments totaling $796,468, which accounts for 49% of our proposed 2022 Ministry Plan Budget. Here is the link to proposed budget: http://content.knollwood.org/2022_Documents/22Proposed_Ministry_Plan_Presentation.pdf.

If you have not yet returned your Giving or Service commitment card, please do so by downloading commitment cards here: <https://tinyurl.com/mka5xrzr> and returning your commitment card to the church office. One can also make a confidential giving commitment for 2022 by emailing our Financial Coordinator, Michelle Anderson, at finance@knollwood.org

Service commitments will be shared with the appropriate staff member or committee.

Thank you for your support of Knollwood's life and mission.

2022 Budget Approval Process

Church-in-Conference Wednesday, Jan. 26, 2022

Once all giving commitments are received, and the Finance Committee has reviewed year-end receipts and expenses, the Finance Committee will recommend either (a) adoption of the proposed 2021 Ministry Plan Budget or (b) recommend a revised budget, if needed. The final budget for 2022 will be voted on at a Church in Conference at 6 PM on Wednesday night, Jan. 26, 2022.

Agape Sunday This December

By CHRIS NORMAN

Staff Liaison to Agape Gathering

Because of the continued pandemic, the Agape Gathering will be postponed for this year. But, in the tradition of Agape, there will be a Christmas Ornament for the children and a small sweet treat to take home. These will be available as you leave worship on Sunday, Dec. 12.

Our hope is to continue our Agape Gathering in the coming year.

AMONG OUR CHURCH FAMILY

We extend our condolences to the families who have experienced loss in recent months – to Layne Starling on the Oct. 9 death of her father, John Compere of Chandler, Ariz., and to Virginia on the death of her grandfather.

to Brenda Funderburk on the death of her brother-in-law, Dale Roach, who died in Spartanburg, S.C., Oct. 9.

to the family of Janice Whitt who died Oct. 14 to the family True Pollock, who died Oct. 17.

to Beth Fields on the death of her mother, Clara Fields, Oct. 28.

to Fe de la Torre on the death of her mother, Carol Mae de la Torre, Nov. 8.

to Bernie Clapp and family on the death of her husband Bruce Clapp, Nov. 14

THANK YOU

At this time of crisis in our life, we appreciate all the expressions of love, caring, and prayers that you have shown to us after the loss of our son Todd.

~Margaret and Ken Rigdon

Norma Turnham wishes to thank her KBC family for all the cards and calls.

TTWS Welcomes Fall

By LUCRECIA NORMAN

Minister to Senior Adults & Weekday Preschool

The Four-Year-Old Pod has been working on letters and learning about Thanksgiving and the letter G.

The children read a story called The Ugly Pumpkin and brainstormed how the pumpkin felt during the story, which prompted a discussion about how to treat friends with kindness.

They made giant turkey feathers and put together a gorgeous turkey to decorate our classroom.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children and infants through four-year-olds, on the first floor of Bldg. B. Children’s Worship is offered for Kindergarten through 3rd graders on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays.

Children meet their leaders in the narthex where indicated in the worship order to walk together to Children’s Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. For the 2nd and 4th Sundays, children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families.

Children’s worship bags and activities are available in the narthex for children worshipping with their families. There is also space in the parlor off the narthex for families who may need to step away at any point during the service.

Out of the Box

By CHRISSEY HARDY

Children's Ministry Associate

As we look to Advent this year, I'm grateful that we are in a place as a community and a country where hope feels more tangible. With virus numbers receding and vaccinations now available for our 5-11 age group of children, we will be able to gather in meaningful ways to celebrate and prepare to come close to the mystery of Christmas. While I loved planning and creating your 2020 Advent-in-a-Box to enjoy as families at home last year, I'm much more excited about being OUT of the box this year.

Thinking "out of the box" has been a theme for us during this phase of pandemic life. We have some exciting opportunities to be together with other children and families in 2021, and I hope you'll be sure to mark your calendars and be a part of all of these.

We are also providing a faith-at-home resource for all our Knollwood families to use during Advent this year. "Families Celebrate Advent & Christmas" is a colorful deck of cards that is full of rituals, prayers and reflections. Endlessly flexible for busy schedules, you can create a new after-meal ritual, use them as decorations, or carry them on the go. Explore the entire season from Advent to Christmas through Epiphany." If you have a child at KBC be sure to get yours from Chrissy to use however fits best into your family's rhythms.

FAITH FORMATION AND EDUCATION

What We Have, and What We Hope For

by KATHARINE MARTIN

Interim Minister of Faith Formation and Education

In Advent, we are invited-- encouraged, even-- to feel the uncomfortable tension between what we have and what we hope for. We yearn for healing and for restoration that is not yet. One day, the decision will be made, the answer will come, and the problem will be resolved, but not yet.

One day, the pandemic will be over, but not yet. Soon, Christmas day will dawn with its joy of giving and receiving and celebrating a longed-for new birth. But not yet.

In the thick of this tension, we begin to tell the story of Jesus, reading and singing first of those who prepared the way for him, and of the angel's incredible announcement. We, too, prepare the way and announce the coming of Christ even though the wound still festers, the illness progresses, and the problem persists. And the pandemic is still not yet over!

As we begin to tell the stories of Jesus, may we allow Advent to teach us that God does not require our lives to be nicely tidied in order to show up. Indeed, God shows up in the middle of the night, in the grit of where animals sleep, to a fortuneless, exhausted couple. Aren't we sometimes that desperate and bedraggled? And sometimes, doesn't God birth a new hope into our mess?

In 2021, December at Knollwood is once again rich with opportunities to prepare the way for Christmas. Join us for the Wednesday night fellowship of Advent reflection and the barely rehearsed fun of a Christmas pageant. Come worship on Sunday mornings with hopeful music, stirring liturgies, and the powerful word proclaimed. Bring all that you have, and all that you hope for, too, as we share the hope of Advent together.

ADVENT DEVOTIONAL

In the coming weeks, each Knollwood household will receive Advent: A Calendar of Devotions. For each day of Advent, the lectionary text and a devotional reflection inspired by it is provided. Both closing prayers and closing practices-- suggestions for Advent spiritual formation in daily life-- are included with each entry. Along with the Faith Formation and Education committee, I hope it will bring you daily inspiration and a prayerful and reflective Advent season.

WEDNESDAY ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Wednesday Faith Formation programs will take a break for Thanksgiving, and will return on Dec. 1 at 6:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall.

DEC. 1 - THE STORY BEGINS WITH ADVENT

Even though the liturgical season of Advent comes at the end of the calendar year, its actually the kickstart of the Christian Church year.

The Christian story begins with Advent, four weeks set aside to prepare for the best beginning ever-- the birth of Christ, God-with-us.

Using the resource I Love to Live the Story: A Guide to Understanding and Celebrating the Christian Church Year, we'll delve into the meaning of Advent as a time to begin again in faith, hope, and love.

DEC. 8 - THE READING WARRIORS PROGRAM AND A "BARELY" REHEARSED CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

What a joy it will be to experience the Christmas story through the annual ever-so-slightly-rehearsed Christmas pageant, presented by Knollwood's children and their leaders. Beforehand, we'll learn from Sylvia Oberle and others about the new Reading Warriors program, in which volunteers help close the achievement gap by helping students learn to read.

DEC. 15 SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

6 PM in the Sanctuary

The Service of Remembrance is a part of the Advent tradition at Knollwood. The service is a time of remembrance and reflection for those who have experienced the loss of a loved one or friend, the loss of relationship, the loss of job, the loss of health, or any other painful loss.

Family and friends are invited to bring photographs or other small mementos to place on the altar table. Feel free to contact Dr. Bob, bob@knollwood.org, or Rev. Chris Norman, lnorman@knollwood.org, with any questions you may have.

From Knollwood's Medical Team

By STEVE CRAMER

The Knollwood Medical Team continues to advise the ministers and lay leaders on church protocols and policies in the ongoing pandemic. Joe Long leads the team, which includes four doctors: John Roach, Rebecca Wells, David Ramsay, and Chip Mims.

The team monitors trends in Forsyth County and beyond as we pursue safe ways for the congregation to worship, learn, play, and socialize in groups large and small. While Knollwood continues to require masking indoors in most situations, the team believes that the pandemic is getting more manageable, especially for vaccinated people. And now many Knollwood kids aged 5 to 11 have received their first shots, for which we are grateful.

Most recently, the team discussed proposals to replace outdoor gatherings, now that winter weather is approaching.

Stay tuned via the church's various communication channels for updates and announcements.

Thank you to all Knollwood members and friends for getting your shots and continuing to wear your masks indoors at church.

Faith Formation & Education Minister Search Update

The Faith Formation & Education Minister Search Committee held two informational sessions on Sunday, Nov. 14, to update the congregation on its progress to date and to seek additional input on next steps.

Acknowledging that the pandemic had led to a longer-than-anticipated timeline, Sylvia Oberle, committee chair, reviewed the adjustments made to allow the committee to continue working even as the church responded to closings and mandates. In addition to conducting a congregational survey, the committee has done extensive research on recent church trends nationally as well as interviews with clergy fulfilling similar staff roles in other churches across the country.

Chris Gambill, director of the Center for Congregational Health and a consultant to the committee, stressed the importance of using this time of "disruption and change" to re-think approaches to faith formation in the life of the church.

Based on its assessment, the committee has recommended that the current 20-hour position be expanded to 25 hours a week, in keeping with current income projections of the church and reflecting emerging post-pandemic practices. From its assessment, the committee has also developed what it views as priorities for the Faith Formation and Education Ministry as well as essential attributes and characteristics of someone fulfilling that role.

The full committee report is available at <https://tinyurl.com/ybd49y86>.

The committee will continue to review congregational feedback, work with Finance and Personnel committees to monitor both year-end finances and giving commitments, finalize the job description, and be prepared to make any adjustments before beginning the actual search after the first of the year.

Comments and feedback are welcome by emailing Sylvia Oberle, chair, at soberleo405@gmail.com, or Beth Fields, vice chair, at fieldsbfields@aol.com.

Hymnal for the Next Generation

By ROZANNA GOOCEY

Minister of Music and Worship

Once every couple of decades most churches reflect on their canon of song. Often a church discovers that newly written hymns resonate with the church's theology and mission, but are not found in their current hymnal.

Knollwood adopted The Worshipping Church hymnal in 1991, shortly after the hymnal was published. What a wonderful decision that was! It is a significant way Knollwood faithfully formed several generations of Christians to love

God and neighbor.

Many of the hymns we sing every week at Knollwood can be found in the pages of The Worshipping Church. We also know that there have been important contributions to congregational song and liturgy since the beginning of the 21st century, especially from our Christian brothers and sisters in Africa, Asia, and South America. Some of these songs are not part of our current hymnal, and yet they reflect the diversity of God's people that Knollwood celebrates and treasures. Additionally, modern-day hymn writers are always helping the church articulate and give voice to timeless truths in language that reflects the Spirit's work in the church and the world today.

We will be entering into this kind of conversation at KBC through the Hymnal Selection Committee, which has been recommended by the Worship and Music Committee and approved by the DEC this past October. The Hymnal Selection Committee will begin their work in January. One of the most important steps in this discernment process will happen/occur when we gather input from the congregation about beloved hymns and important traditions in Knollwood's worship life. You can look for more information about the way we'll ask for this input in our next newsletter.

Hymnal Selection Committee Work to Begin

By JANET RAY

Music and Worship Committee

The Music and Worship Committee is pleased to announce the appointment of a Hymnal Selection Committee charged with reviewing available hymnals and selecting one most appropriate for our church. Our current hymnal, purchased in 1991, has served us well for 30 years. The addition of a new hymnal to our worship experience will support and inspire us as we grow toward learning to live like Jesus with head, heart and hands.

The Hymnal Selection Committee members are Mark Jensen, Peggy Haymes, Ben Floyd, Ben Heinsohn and Olivia Hinson with Rozanna Goocey, Lauren Winkelman and Bob Setzer serving as staff liaisons. The committee will begin work in January and expects to complete the process by early fall of 2022. The Diaconate Executive Council (DEC) endorsed the ad hoc committee and hymnal selection process at its meeting on Oc. 31, 2021.

Holidays a Little More Special

By JOSH GODWIN

Minister of Youth and Recreation

The 2020 holiday season was special, certainly, but it was a strange kind of special. It was special by default since so much of our normal, beloved traditions had to be put on hold for the interest of pandemic safety. For some, this meant staying home a little more and soaking in some rare relaxed Christmas moments. For others, this brought on a heavy measure of loneliness as normal holiday connections couldn't quite come together.

The 2020 holidays were oddly special and a season we will all remember in our own way. It's beginning to look like the 2021 holiday season will be a little more special in its own way. As the grips of the pandemic continue to loosen, some of our beloved traditions are back on the table, including some of those for KBC.ym.

For years unnumbered, our youth and alumni have carefully constructed specialized brooms, weaving together strands and binding them together with copious amounts of duct tape. We hit the ice in our grippiest sneakers for some slippery, slidey fun late on a Friday night in December to play Broom Hockey. Last year, this occasion wasn't available. I am thrilled (thrilled, I tell you!) to say it's time to grab up those brooms once again and get ready for the return of Broom Hockey this holiday season the evening of Friday, Dec. 10. All current youth and our KBC.ym alumni are invited to join in.

This fall, we have enjoyed continuing our 2021 trend of gathering outside and enjoying the beautiful Creation in which our church resides. Sitting in small groups under the shade of our trees or gathering amongst the fallen leaves on the Noffsinger patio, the change of scenery for our youth group gatherings has been splendid. However, as the days get shorter and the air gets colder, we are so excited to be able to move back into our beloved Noffsinger space. For now, and until it is surely safe for all our folks, we will still do so cautiously and wear masks while inside. Nevertheless, it is a welcome sight to return to the space that means so much to our youth ministry on Sunday mornings and Sunday evenings.

The holidays are quickly approaching, carrying so many emotions and hopes. Hopes of normalcy, hopes of newness, and hopes of being nearer one another are all beginning to bubble inside us. KBC.ym is hopeful for all the joy that comes with another special holiday season.

New Winter Welcome

By JOSH GODWIN

Minister of Youth and Recreation

The Covid-19 pandemic has meant limiting our ability to welcome friends and neighbors into shared indoor spaces. As a congregation, we have been very careful and deliberate about the ways and whens of our regathering, especially inside. We all went through a step by step, tiered process of slowly growing our indoor worshipping body. We have, this fall, carefully worked our way back inside for Wednesday evening activities. As we approach the winter months, this process will continue as we look to stay together in the colder season.

This presents some exciting opportunities for our recreation ministry and the Wellness and Community Center. Throughout much of the pandemic, the WCC was unavailable. Earlier this year, we started hosting walkers on the walking track throughout the day and welcoming families and friendship circles back into the gym for some indoor play. We piloted some group pickleball sessions in the evenings this fall for some of our KBC pickleballers. All of this was done in ways to ensure the safety of all those folks bringing life back to the WCC.

The colder winter months mean more and more folks, both from KBC and our surrounding community, will be looking for a warm place to exercise and play. Our facility has been a blessing to many already since its opening, and one we are so excited to be able to share again.

Beginning in December, we hope to be opening our doors a little wider for families and groups to reserve time to play in the gym. Hopefully this will include available times five days a week waiting for families, or specified groups of families, to enjoy a cathedral of play. In the heart of the cold winter months, probably in the new year, we hope to open our doors a little wider again and welcome folks from our surrounding community for pre-registered times of pickleball and open basketball in the gym. After so many months, it is good to look forward to the sounds of play returning to the WCC. Watch for updates in forthcoming KBC communications about these and other plans for our Recreation ministry.
