THE SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Sunday, March 17, 2019 • 10:55 AM

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless;
to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;
to all who want rest, peace, and happiness — this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

THE LORD’S PRAYERWalter Stinehelfer

One: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
All: Dear God. You are like a parent who loves us or like a dog that loves to be with us all the time. You are awesome.
One: Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

All: We pray for a time when everyone on this earth is always loving; a time when everyone has enough food to eat and a home to live in and the earth is cared for so that the planet can continue to be our home.

One: Give us this day our daily bread.

All: Please help us have the things we need to exist: food and clean water, clear air, sunshine and friends.

One: And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

All: We make mistakes like littering and bullying people. Please accept our apologies and love us anyway. Help us be friends with people who have done something wrong to us.

One: And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

All: Please help us. We will try very hard not to make the same mistakes again or make new mistakes.

One: For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.

All: Thank you, God. You make our world and us better. You are awesome! Amen.

*If somewhere a child is hungry or isn't tucked in, safe and warm;
If somewhere a baby's crying, longing for a parent's arms;
That is where the love of Jesus must be shared by you and me,
For if we have plenty, love and safety, we must share with the least of these.
The children of the world are our children, made by God, just like you and me.
The children of the world must be fed and held and loved, for if one of them is hungry, so are we.*

TO OUR GUESTS

We extend to you a sincere welcome and the hope that you will find your worship experience meaningful. You are invited to the narthex for a brief time of fellowship following worship where you can meet church members and clergy, and learn more about this congregation. We would ask that you record your visit by filling out the friendship pad in the pew; email addresses are especially helpful. To learn more about Knollwood Baptist Church, find us online at www.knollwood.org. You can also receive our newsletter and email announcements by emailing colleen@knollwood.org, or just call the church office, 725-1343. Sunday School at Knollwood begins at 9:45 a.m.

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Today's service on prayer was written and designed by our children as they explored prayer together with teachers and leaders on Wednesdays and Sundays. We learned about praying with more than just words and wanted the congregation to experience some of these multi-sensory prayer experiences, too. The art on the altar table was made by our children. Each fingerprint represents a prayer offered by a child. Thanks to Rodney Stilwell for his help with this project. The posters in the narthex were also a part of our children's work on prayer. Take a moment to see what they have written and feel free to add your own thoughts to these posters. The offering collected today will fund our Children's Mission Fund and allow us to complete missions projects in our community. Thanks to Laura Ramsay, Dan Knight, Janet Ray, and Mary Ann Davis for their support and leadership as they worked with these children.

The ushers today are: Charlie Isaac, Scott Johnson, Steven O'Neill, Jack Bain, Evan Neiberg, Aaron Neiberg, Palmer Francis, Kira Madan, Meredith Nichols, Chase Hulme, Lincoln Heinshohn, Hank Francis, Ephraim Causby, Colton Joyce, and Rebecca Maner.

Today's Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were written by the children of Knollwood on Wednesday nights as we learned about prayer together.

The acolytes are Kira Madan and Chase Hulme and the crucifer is Steve Ball.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of god and in loving memory of their parents, Clarice and Chester Davis, by their daughters, Judith Kuhn and Inez Davis; their sons and their wives, Ron and Evalynn Davis and Bill and Jennifer Davis; and their granddaughters, Rhonda, Carol, Rachel, Amber, and Holly.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

According to the Gospels, Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness of Judea wrestling with the kind of Messiah he would be. There, Jesus renounced the seductions of power, success, and status to follow in the way of suffering love. He must have realized early on, that his path would lead to a confrontation with the civil and religious authorities. Nonetheless, Jesus "set his face to go to Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51), even if that meant--as ultimately it did--he would face death on a cross. The banners portray Jesus in the wilderness, contemplating the road ahead. They will remain up throughout Lent, a 40-day period of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The artist is Knollwood's own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children's Worship is offered for 1st through 3rd graders. It typically meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month, though today it will not meet because of Children's Sunday. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children's Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone the children during that time. If you are interested in volunteering one Sunday, please contact Chrissy Hardy, chrissy@knollwood.org.

For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children's activity bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

RECOGNITION FOR MARLIN YODER NEXT SUNDAY

We will say farewell to our church administrator and dear friend Marlin Yoder next Sunday, March 24th. You are welcome to bring cards, notes and other expressions of well wishes that morning. We will have a time of recognition at the conclusion of the service and a gathering in the narthex soon after. Marlin's last day at Knollwood is Friday, March 29th.

DONATIONS FOR TORNADO RELIEF

Anyone wishing to make a donation to tornado relief efforts in Alabama, please make your check on online donation out to Knollwood Baptist Church and put "Tornado Relief" in the memo line. These monies will be channeled through the national Cooperative Baptist Fellowship.

LENTEN JOURNEY: PRAYERS FOR THE WELFARE OF THE CITY

During Lent, members and friends of Knollwood are invited to share in a daily practice of praying for the welfare of our city. A children's prayer calendar offers sentence prayers that correspond to the texts of longer adult prayers. Look for a printed copy of both the children's and adult prayers after worship or in the church office. The prayer texts are also online: <https://goo.gl/2pzKic>. Children's Lenten calendars can be found at <https://goo.gl/L5u7fp>.
