Sunday, October 8, 2023 • 10:45 AM

In-Person and Live-Stream

To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts; to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness — this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.

CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.” (Romans 12:1)

CALL TO WORSHIPLucrecia Norman

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul.

God’s decrees are certain, making us wise.

The commandments of the Lord are clear, enlightening the eyes.

Reverence for God is pure, enduring forever.

The ordinances of the Lord are altogether true and right,

More to be desired than fine gold.

O Lord, give us eyes to see and ears to hear,

And hearts willing to obey you completely.

~Richard Vinson, from Psalm 19

PRAYER OF THE DAYLucrecia Norman

Almighty God, perfect love, absolute truth, and everlasting mercy, you gave your people the Law, and for centuries have blessed those who studied it and lived by it. In your love, teach us obedience. In your truth, enable us honestly to see our faults. In your mercy, forgive us and help us return to your paths; through Jesus Christ, who is your love, truth, and mercy for us and for the whole world. Amen.

~Richard Vinson

PRAYER OF CONFESSIONKatharine Martin

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

~Book of Common Prayer

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

"The way" is a familiar biblical theme encompassing such truths as "the way of the Lord" (Isaiah 40:3), Jesus as "the way" (John 14:6), and "the way" as a description of Christian discipleship (Acts 9:2). The words on the banner point to the movements of faith: Longing for God that impels us forward in the spiritual journey; Learning the way of the Scriptures and the way of Jesus; Loving as our love for God and our neighbors deepens; and Living as we live out of Christian faith and witness in the world.

The colors of the banner emphasize green for "ordinary time," the period in the church year between Pentecost and Advent. The artist who designed and painted the banners is our own Bambi Setzer.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT PROGRAMS

Oct. 11 and 18: Sunday School on Wednesday Nights

Leaders of several Sunday morning groups at Knollwood share reflections on scripture, faith, and spiritual formation.

Oct. 11: The Practice and Ministry of Silence (Forrest Causby, Circle of Quiet)

In a world that can overwhelm us with noise of all kinds, we'll learn about the countercultural and misunderstood skill of being quiet — with ourselves, with God, and with others. We will explore the nature of noise, why it is so hard to sit in silence, and how we can benefit from a practice of quiet prayer. We will learn about disciplines like centering prayer, the awareness examen, and deep listening to others.

“Option B” on Oct. 11: Tracing the Image of God: Working Through Our God-Talk

Chapel, 6:15-7 PM (concurrent with the Faith Formation program in the Fellowship Hall)

Are you intrigued by the information presented during the Tracing the Image of God Wednesday night program series and interested in going deeper?

Join Rev. Ken Pettigrew and others for a two-week series of small group discussions about embodiment, gender identity, and how we talk about God, self, and others. Bring your thoughts, your questions, and your lived experience.

Oct. 18: David and Solomon: A Pair of Paradoxes (Jennifer Graybeal Boone, Barnabas)

David is the only human being in Scripture who is described — in two places! — as a man “after God’s own heart.” Looking at David’s great failings, we might wonder: What did God see in him? David’s son, Solomon, was given “a wise and discerning heart” by God. And yet, Solomon was led astray. Let’s see what wisdom, and what insight into the heart of God, we can discern from their stories.

FALL BLOOD DRIVE

Thursday, Oct. 12, 1-5:30 PM, Fellowship Hall

Adequate blood bank supply is crucial to save lives and a constant need. Sign up now for our fall blood drive and help us reach our 41-unit goal. We also welcome everyone to join the drive as volunteers to help with registration and snacks.

Make your own appointment by visiting www.redcrossblood.org (enter KBC’s Zip code, 27104, in the “Make an Appointment” box, then select our event for available times) or contact Katy Hites at khhites@gmail.com or 336-972-6039.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL AND TRUNK OR TREAT

Wednesday, Oct. 25, 6 PM, Courtyard and TTWS Parking Lot (rain location: WCC)

Come enjoy a night of spooky-season fun as a church. Children’s choir will start at 5:15 PM and will let out early for a quick pizza dinner followed by a costume parade and prizes, carnival games, and trunk or treating starting at 6 PM. Children should bring a bag or bucket to collect treats. It will be a rollicking and festive evening. We’ll see you there!

2023 FAMILY RETREAT: FAITH THAT CAN MOVE MOUNTAINS

Saturday, Nov. 4, 9:30 AM-4:30 PM, KBC Campus

This year's family retreat is for all kbc.kids and kbc.youth and their families.

Matthew 17:20 says, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

Drawing from that famous parable, we'll explore together what it means to have faith in Jesus and how that faith impacts the world around us.

It's ideal if your family can attend the entire retreat. Part of what makes a retreat special is extended time spent together, away from the other demands of our daily lives. But if you have a conflict that you cannot work around, we'd rather have you for part of the day than none of it.

Find more details and register at www.tinyurl.com/KBCFamilyRetreat23.

ARTS & HEARTS CLASS: HAND-BUILDING WITH THE HOLY FAMILY

Monday, Nov. 6, 6-8 PM AND Monday, Nov. 13, 6-8 PM

These two classes will provide a spiritual, visual arts-based experience for adults during Advent by using clay to construct figures of the Holy Family. Participants will use slabs of clay to construct a figure of Mary, Joseph, and Jesus. Several figures can be built: one for participants, and the others can be given as Christmas gifts to church members who are homebound. No prior experience with clay is necessary.

Classes are limited to 15 participants and will be led by Pam Boehme and Rodney Stilwell. Participants will need to attend both classes.

Register at www.tinyurl.com/KBCHolyFamilyClass23.

MONTHLY BOOK DISCUSSION FOR PARENTS OF YOUNG PEOPLE

Sundays, 5:45-6:45 PM, Chapel

Join us once a month on Sunday evenings to discuss Growing With: Every Parent's Guide to Helping Teenagers and Young Adults Thrive in Their Faith, Family, and Future by Kara Powell and Steve Argue. For more information on the book, visit growingwithbook.com. Corinne Causby and Ben Heinsohn are facilitators.

We'll gather on the following 2023-24 dates: Nov. 5, Dec. 3, Jan. 21, Feb. 11, March 24, April 21, and May 19. Participants will need to acquire their own book copies. A limited number of copies are available for $10 at the church office. Cash, check, or credit card are accepted. Register at www.tinyurl.com/KBCGrowingWith.
